

The Perfect Resort for The Maldives

Relaxation and entertainment are the two things we are devoid of in our busy and hectic life and going with our family and friends into a tropical adventure is great pleasure indeed. The Maldives has been the epitome of natural aesthetic rehabilitation therapy for years. It is more than just an island and is home to the world-renowned resort-fairmont maldives sirru fen fushi. The resort is not only well known for its vast array of modern luxuries but also for its ability to let the people experience the natural beauty of the tropical Maldives.

'Sirru Fen Fushi', meaning 'A secret water island' lives up to its name. The luxury holiday resort is packed with a fascinating underwater sculpture park to satiate the hunger of those who crave for underwater adventures. Sightseeing in the Maldives had always been a pleasurable experience for tourists and Fairmont Maldives provides the customers with top-notch customer services for giving you an opportunity to experience the natural wonders of this magnificent island. The resort also gives you access to the best spots to view groups of dolphins swimming in the turquoise waters of the Maldives. This ultimate resort offers you with one twenty magnificent luxury villas with the astounding views of the turquoise lagoons and the pristine beaches. Family holidays in Maldives are best spent on such villas which is available for 2 to 3 adults and children.

They are equipped with private pools under the sun for those who enjoy or prefer an indoor swim and a quick soak in the water. Modern luxuries are in abundance and the posh as well as warm and relaxing interior decor helps in lightening up the ambiance. Spa and massage treatments are also available to customers. The Willow Tree Spa at the resort will help you be one with the tropical island and open the third eye to nature's elements.

The carefully curated spa treatments will leave your skin soft and supple and help you relax your body along with your mind. It acts as a healing therapy and will help you recharge your energy after a day packed with tropical adventures. We at OV Holidays have special offers too! For 4 nights/5 days package. The resort provides you with the detour to the very first underwater museum in the Maldives, opened by the resort itself, along with exciting water sports. There is also kids club access along with the mesmerizing scenic marine beauty of the island.